Slow and steady: "Sure," I said, picking up my purse. As we walked, we talked. We'd wanted to be writers and now we were. He told me about his writing — he was writing for a popular television show — and I told him the plot of my third novel. He showed me a picture of his dog, and I pulled up a picture of mine.

'Slow and Steady': A Short Story by Rachel Khong
Progress on quilting stuff this week has been slow but steady; sometimes that's just how it has to be! I'm really trying to savor any sewing moments I have during busy days and weeks. I was really happy to get the scrappy binding machine stitched onto my Swoon quilt-seems that's the hardest part to accomplish. [...]
